VEGETINE!

HE SAYS IT IS TRUE.

SENECA FALLS, NOV. 9, 1875.

MR. H. R. STEVENS :

Dear Sir—As you are an entire stranger to me, I want you to know what VEGETINE has done for me. Only those who have been raised from death's door can know the value of such a good medicine. I am 58 years of age. Three years ago I was taken sick with what the doctors called LUMBAGO. For weeks I was confined to my bed. I had three different physicians, without any help. I received no relief; I was a great sufferer; finally I became entirely helpless. The last doctor told me there was no help; he said no might possibly save my life by ejecting morphine in my arms and legs. The encouragement for saving my life by having this done was so small a chance I could not consent to run the risk. About this time my son read your advertisement in our paper, a testimony of a person who had been very sick with about the same complaint, and was cured. My son went right away to the apothecary store and bought a bottle of VEGETINE. Before I had used the first bottle I found great relief; I could move myself in bed. After taking three bottles I was able to sit up and move about my room. I continued taking the VEGETINE and I was in a few weeks restored to my former health. The VEGETINE saved my life after the physicians said there was no help for me. I have had no doctor since. If I feel unwell I take a dose of VEGETINE, and I recommend it to my friends.

Your VEGETINE ought to be in every family. My doctor was surprised to see me in good health. He says VEGETINE is a good medicine. I tell him it cured me. He says, "It is true." I cannot feel too thankful. Very gratefully yours,

Mrs. CATHERINE COONS.

Seneca Falls, Seneca County, N. Y.

VEGETINE.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE

WILL CURE

CANKER HUMOR.

ROCKPORT, March 31, 1876.

H. R. STEVENS :

Sir—Last fall my husband got me two bottles of your VEGETINE to take for the Canker Humor, which I have had in my stomach for several years. I took it, and the result was very satisfactory. I have taken a good many remedies for the Canker Humor, and none seemed to help me but VEGETINE. There is no doubt in my mind that every one suffering with Canker Humor can be cured by taking VEGETINE. It gave me a good appetite, and I felt better in every respect. Yours, with respect,

Mrs. ELIZA ANN POOLE.

VEGETINE.

NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.

SOUTH SALEM, MASS., NOV. 14, 1876.

MR. H. R. STEVENS :

Dear Sir—I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker, and Liver Complaint for three years. Nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the VEGETINE. I am now getting along first rate and still using the VEGETINE. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to every body. Yours truly,

Mrs. LIZZIE M. PACKARD,
No. 16 Lagrange St., South Salem, Mass.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

FROM NEW YORK.

Insolent Suspended Collegians.

NEW YORK, June 18.

The suspended class of Princeton College took advantage of commencement today to organize a procession, and with arms draped in crape and pall bearers bearing a coffin, (a violin box heavily craped and marked "1881"), and singing college songs, marched to the house of President McCosh, where they howled themselves hoarse. They proceeded to the depot and left the place. Subsequently, the annual gymnastic exercises were indulged in by the rest of the collegians.

An Anti-Beecher Movement in New York.

NEW YORK, June 18.

A report is current here that efforts are being made to pack the National Congregational Council with anti-Beecher representatives in order to pass a resolution condemning his recent trial.

BY CABLE.

The Ex-President in England.

HE IS GIVEN A DINNER BY THE REFORM CLUB.

Speeches by Prominent Personages.

LONDON, June 18.

The Reform Club gave a dinner tonight in honor of Gen. Grant. Among the American guests were Consul General Badeau and the United States minister to Russia. Mr. Pierrepont was unable to attend. Lord Derby, to whom an invitation was sent, in order to show that the gathering was not a party one, replied expressing regret that previous engagements prevented him accepting it. Earl Granville occupied the chair, and the Right Honorable W. E. Foster was vice chairman.

The Company.

Among the eminent persons present were Richard Baxter, chairman of the general committee; Mr. Adam, the liberal whip; Sir Charles Dilke, Mr. W. E. Baxter, Mr. Latham, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Mundella, and many other members of parliament. Tom Taylor was the principal non-political celebrity present.

The Toasts.

Four toasts only were drank. The queen was proposed by the chairman, the president and people of the United States was proposed in cordial terms by Forster, who said that in praising the American people he felt he was praising his own countrymen. To this the United States minister to Russia responded, concluding with the sentiment which was heartily responded to, of "Liberal men and liberal measures." Earl Granville then proposed General Grant's health. He recalled the changes which a century had wrought in the relations of the two kindred countries. Gen. Grant expressed intense satisfaction at the cordial greeting he received, which he said was typical of the reception he had enjoyed since his arrival in this country. The health of the chairman was proposed by Mr. Fraser Rae, who intimated that John Bright and Chas. Villiers, though prevented from being present, were in cordial sympathy with the entertainment.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Battle with the Turks And Montenegrins.—The Turks Thrice Repulsed with Great Slaughter.

NEW YORK, June 18.

The details of the battle in Montenegro, in which the Montenegrins drove back the Turks, who were on the way to Nicsics, are as follows: The advance of the Turks from Podgoritza, Albania, had been carefully watched by the Montenegrins and every precaution taken in the selection of the point at which to receive the invading party. The Turks moved forward to Spuz, reaching that place Friday night. On Saturday morning at daylight, the advance into Montenegro began. The Turkish force numbered 10,000 under Ali Saib.

There are two roads leading in the direction of Nicsics toward the north. The road to the left is far less direct and in a much worse condition than the one on the right. Therefore, as the Montenegrin commander Bouzo Petrovich had foreseen, Ali Saib chose the road to the right. The Montenegrins were believed by the Turks to be at Rassity. The Montenegrins had taken up a station at Plana, a very small village on the route of the Turkish advance, and 3,000 strong awaited the invaders. The situation was one of their own choosing, and was adopted to their manner of warfare.

With the utmost confidence the hearty Montenegrins awaited the attack. About 11 o'clock fourteen Turkish battalions attacked the Montenegrins, being repulsed by the latter, who were entrenched behind earth-works. The third advance the Turks made with eight battalions, led by Ali Saib in person. He was nearly beside himself with rage because of the repulses. Flushed with victories the Montenegrins saw their enemies come up with little heart, therefore they refrained from firing till within 200 yards. They then poured a deadly volley into their enemies' front. A small body of Montenegrin horsemen dashed out from either side and fell upon the flanks.

At first the flanks wavered, but rapidly changing front, they killed many of the attacking party. The centre came up without halting, until it received the second volley, then through some mistaken order or because of a disinclination to advance, the Turks halted. This was fatal to them, for quicker than it takes to tell it, the Montenegrins sprang as one man over the parapet of their entrenchments, and with yells, attacked with the bayonet. A few horrible bayonet wounds settled the fray. The Turks broke, but were partially rallied by Ali Saib, and fell back about two miles, in tolerable shape, to an open piece of country.

The Montenegrins re-formed and began the pursuit. They took few prisoners, but killed about all they overtook. The Turks were pursued to Spuz, leaving over 2000 dead on the road, beside wounded and prisoners. The Prince of the Montenegrins was profoundly affected at the losses and the victory.

The Fate of Nicsics Settled.

A correspondent at the Montenegrin headquarters states that Nicsics has been provisioned by the Turks, but the importance of that place has ceased, as its capture can now be effected at any time by the artillery commanding it.

Another Ineffectual Sortie by the Garrison at Kars.

Russian accounts say the garrison at Kars made another desperate sortie, but General Heinman repulsed them with great loss to the Turks.

A cavalry engagement at Kugola resulted in the loss of 200 Turks and 11 Russians.

THE FAR NORTHWEST.

Fight with the Indians in Idaho.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.

A dispatch from Walla Walla says the stage from Lewiston brought news that the soldiers from Lapivar and the Indians had fought about thirteen miles from Cottonwood creek. Young Joseph and squaw were killed during the fight, the Indians killing six soldiers.

Trouble with New Jersey Railroad Laborers.

CAMDEN, N. J., June 18.

One of the track laborers on the Philadelphia and Atlantic City Railroad having been discharged, the rest of the men numbering one hundred and fifty have stopped work. The men are camped near Bettle's Wood about four miles from this place, and are making threats of violence against any men who take their places. The sheriff, with a strong posse, has gone to disperse them.

WOODSHED THEATRICALS.

HOW THE BOYS ENJOY THEMSELVES ON A RAINY DAY.

If there is any living creature which will at all compare with a boy on a rainy day, we have never found it, and when this boy is multiplied by six, and the entire half dozen take possession of a woodshed, earth holds nothing to be compared with them. It is on Saturday that a boy appears in all his glory, with spirits gay as a lark, having escaped the bondage of school. He usually puts on a pair of pants too far gone to be mended, invites Bill and Joe, and Harry and John, and a few others to come to his show. For there is a fascination connected with the drop curtain, which pervades humanity from the small boy up. There is a mystery behind the scenes which never fails to appeal to our love of the marvelous, and whether it be the gorgeous curtain of a gilded and frescoed theatre, or a dingy wood shed with a piece of old carpet for a curtain, and a few purloined boards for a stage, it has its votaries. Boys like a rainy day for these matinees, they experience a sense of security which rarely comes on a dry, sunshiny afternoon. They are seen running surreptitiously through the house hunting up a wardrobe. Other boys skulk through the alley and the house fills rapidly. Then we hear wranglings and loud voices about the pins received at the door, and some angry shouts among the stage managers. There is a misunderstanding too, with the orchestra—a French harp, two oyster cans, base brass kettle and an old tambourine. The door-keeper gets confused in his head and loses the run of the pins, and two small boys are ejected with great bitterness and they withdraw a few paces and begin throwing stones at the theatre. The curtain rises and Billy Wilson dances an essence, while the entire corps of the green room look and laugh louder than the audience. Whack, goes a brick from the small boys whose pins are not genuine, the cook rushes down on the house like the police on a model artistic show; she shouts "in off wid yez," and the audience are seized with a sudden panic; the actor representing a grizzly bear, falls over the orchestra, the boy with the French harp climbs on top of a lot of sawed wood which represents the gallery, which gallery topples over and falls amid the crowd below, the boy's mother arrives on the scene and passionately declares that his father is coming and will settle with him for such a hurrah as he is raising. Every boy runs without demanding his pins of the doorkeeper, the cook upsets the stage, pulls down the curtain and swears she sees no use in "cleaning wid such a pack of haythens around." The proprietor of the varieties sulks awhile, goes out and gets wet and chilly, and finally concludes the day by setting three steel traps for rats, which is a never failing fund of intellectual amusement for the average boy. The boy who is not addicted to Saturday matinees nor rats may grow up into a man like Henry Ward Beecher, but don't shut off the keenest amusement they can enjoy now for the remote possibility of the latter.—[Cincinnati Saturday Night.

RUSSIAN PRIESTS.

Russian priests are a disgrace to Christianity. "He has priest's eyes," is a proverb which means that the person so characterized is lustful, greedy and self-seeking. Moreover, they are in a drunken nation the most drunken. A friend of mine, who stayed several months at a Russian country house, says it was a common sight to see two priests lying in a cart, as pigs do when they are driven to market. One Saint's day, he tells me, the priest came to chapel too far gone to read the service; instead of being struck dumb with shame, he actually whined out an apology: "We poor fellows spend all our time in praying for others, and have no one to pray for us; no wonder, therefore, we fall under temptation." Things are just as bad in Bulgaria; an English engineer, who has just written a book of his experiences there, went over one Sunday to attend a church, whose "pope" had a great reputation for sanctity. There was no service, for the "pope" was lying dead drunk among the nettles at the back of his vodka (whiskey) shop. "I heard," quaintly adds the writer, "that for the five previous Sundays his place had been among those vegetables." Is it any wonder the Turks look on a religion which has such teachers as fitter for swine than for men?—[All the Year Round.

A curious bit of news has been received by the Manchester Guardian at Constantinople to the effect that an insurrection of Jebel tribes has broken out in eastern Syria, and that a battle has taken place. The insurgents, numbering 12,000, are said to have been defeated. As to what the row was all about no intimation is given, but it is a startling fact that Turkey is called upon to fight the subject tribes, and good Mohammedans, too, in the midst of a "religious war."

Northern Georgia proves to have gone almost solid for the constitutional convention, and there will probably be 10,000 majority for it in the state. The convention will meet on the 11th of July, and its proceedings will be watched with a good deal of interest. One of the plans for holding it has been to revoke the clause in the constitution which to use Ben Hill's words, "brands the late war as a rebellion, thus insulting the living and dishonoring the patriotic dead," and another clause which recognizes allegiance to the national government as paramount to fealty to the state.

The following was the peroration of Senator Ben. Hill in a speech at a mass meeting in favor of the new Georgia Constitution, which was held at Atlanta, Ga., last Saturday night:

"The future of this south is going to be better, brighter, nobler and higher as time goes on, and if we will be wise, prudent, true and firm—cling to the Union as it is—the day is not far distant when you will be the controlling power in this government to the great good of everybody in the Union."

One of the occupants of a crowded Hartford horse car the other day was a portly Chinese, whose looks expressed profound disgust as, one by one, all the men in the conveyance rose and relinquished their seats to representatives of the fairer sex. At last he succumbed to the force of public opinion and resigned his seat to a simpering school girl, but as soon as he alighted at his destination gave relief to his outraged feelings by exclaiming "Too muchee she!"

THE DAY.

Senator Conkling is about to visit Europe.

Mrs. Hayes is to accompany the President on his visit to Rhode Island.

Prof. Wm. Cook of Cambridge, Mass., with his family, is stopping at the Conanicut Park hotel.

Gov. Noyes of Ohio will accompany President Hayes on his visit to New England next week.

The newspapers begin to speak of the difficulty between Russia and Turkey as "the so-called war in Europe."

Hon. George T. Davis, a member of congress from Massachusetts from 1851 to 1853, died in Portland, Me., yesterday.

The reason the Russians do not cross the Danube is that they are waiting for the water to pass by so they can go over dry shod.

It is now believed that the guilty Molly Maguires will be hung at least that portion of them who have been tried and found guilty.

Chief Justice Waite who has recently returned from a professional visit to South Carolina thinks that a white man could not be convicted there for an offense against a negro.

It is said that James Gordon Bennett is about to come home. We never comprehended his reason for running away, simply on the report that he had fought a duel with nobody hurt.

The hotel at Rocky Point opens for the season on the 26th inst. It will be, as in seasons past, under the popular management of Mr. L. H. Humphreys of the City Hotel of Providence.

An entire class has been suspended in Princeton College for incipient rowdyism. The boys expect to be taken back soon when matters will be fully made up after the manner of college rows generally.

Some of the papers have a column set apart for grumblers and such as wish to find fault. We have been tempted to open such a department in the News but fear that we have not room for all the professionals in that line.

The anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill was celebrated in Boston yesterday with great enthusiasm. It is probably the only battle in the world that is thus commemorated by the defeated party, while the victors do not care to speak about it.

It is at last stated by seeming authority that the government has ceased to print and circulate one and two dollar bills, in the hope that their absence will prepare the way for an increased use of silver change. Too much tinkering with the currency is just what's the matter in these days.

The canker worm is devastating the orchards in many sections. The apple trees in the vicinity of Newport look as though fire had run through them, and in most orchards on the island are denuded of their leaves. The worms are very plenty on Coasters' Harbor island but have not reached Conanicut where the orchards are, many of them, laden with fruit.

The reception to be given to President Hayes in Providence and Newport is to be on temperance principles, the committee having decided that no liquors shall be allowed. This will be gratifying to the president and his family who discard the ardent on all occasions. It was decided by the same committee to provide cigars for the occasion which are, of course, for the guests, as the president himself never smokes.

A recently appointed postoffice agent in one of the Southern states declined going on duty out of his district, saying that he understood he was to remain at home and build up the administration, on which Postmaster General Key wrote him a severe letter telling him that he was not appointed to organize and build up an administration party in his state or elsewhere, but to do the work of the postoffice department, and that he must be ready to work when and where required, in all sorts of weather, on horseback or afoot, if needed. A great many office-seekers and office-holders will be much astonished at this view of things.

About a hundred and fifty persons gathered in the twilight last night at Zion Church to listen to the organ played by Eugene Thayer, the famous organist and composer, and young Shelton, who was once his pupil. It is very seldom that such music as these gentlemen made can be heard in Newport, and the breathless stillness of their little audience, who sat in the falling shadows of the night, testified to their appreciation and enjoyment of the hour. Mr. Thayer commenced by improvising at some length, introducing the prayer from Moses in Egypt, and Mr. Shelton followed him, also playing extempore. Mr. Thayer then played one of Bach's glorious fugues and at the last Home Sweet Home, with variations of his own. We hope that these artists, who have no superiors on the king of instruments, will give our people a grand concert some time during the season, and it is very likely they may do so. The organ, well played, is too seldom heard to be appreciated as it should be; but there is no question that it is the instrument of all instruments and its recognition as such by concert lovers is, we think, near at hand.

The Springfield Union is glad to know that a good many of the men who have lost employment on the railroads and at the armory have hired or bought small farms in country towns of Western Massachusetts and have settled down upon them, determined to make a living. Now that is just what is wanted. In this country no man need be out of business if he is only willing to work. There is enough for every idle man to do. Our lands are not half cultivated and are not made to produce half the crops of which they are capable. The men who hang about the cities and half starve themselves and families could get a good living by tilling the soil, and could in a little time become not only comfortable but comparatively independent. Small farms can be bought or hired, or worked on shares in almost every community. We know in the vicinity of Newport of hundreds of acres that can be had on easy terms by any man who is willing to work them. They have been advertised in the papers and offered in the market with no takers. The "poor men" who ask our sympathy prefer something else. They don't like the country. They want to be near the school, the church, or much more frequently the grog shop. And so they complain of hard times and of great suffering for want of something to do. They profess to be willing to work but they must dictate the time, place, number of hours in the day, the kind of work to be done, and the exact pay to be received. If any of these conditions are not satisfactory they prefer to be idle, and thus the great army of loungers is increased every day. There is no room for them in the cities and they will not live in the country. Hence much of the hard times. Certain departments of business are overdone and certain others are neglected and the whole community suffers. It is plain that society needs reconstructing and more men must till the soil, and a less number seek to crowd themselves into stores and shops.

RECEPTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

The state sub-committee to make arrangements for the reception of the president of the United States held a meeting yesterday in Providence. The details of the reception were informally discussed and several minor plans were decided on. It was unanimously voted to have no liquors of any kind at any of the collations but to have a supply of fine cigars always on hand. It was decided to charter the steamer City of Newport to convey the presidential party to Rocky Point on the 28th, and also that a grand review of the state troops should be held in front of the presidential mansion on Benefit street immediately after the parade on the 29th. A letter from Hon. P. E. Tillinghast was read, stating that he had received a letter from the Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, secretary of state, informing him (Tillinghast) that the presidential party visiting Rhode Island on the 28th inst., would number from twelve to fifteen persons, including Mrs. Hayes and four or five other ladies.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—David Stevens has been re-elected librarian of the Free Library.

—Mr. Isaac Gould died at his residence on Broadway at a little before noon today.

—Daniel Le Roy and George F. Jones, both of New York, have arrived at their respective cottages for the season.

—Frank B. Porter has rented the villa of Lewis M. Rutherford, on Harrison avenue and the bay, to Mrs. Dr. Thomas Buckler, of Baltimore, Md.

—Mr. Christopher Townsend has sent nearly eighty volumes to Mr. Isaac W. Sherman, the treasurer of the Thames Street M. E. Church, for the use of the Sunday school.

—Hon. Mr. Caine, member of congress from South Carolina, preached at the Touro chapel Sunday evening. He will lecture this evening at the same place on A Race Struggling for Manhood.

—Redwood Hall was well filled last night at the strawberry festival of the First Baptist Church. About four hundred tickets were sold and the affair was a success, netting about $100 to the society.

—Miss Martha D. Freeborn residing with her sisters at the corner of Bull and Spring streets died quite suddenly at her home yesterday afternoon. She had spoken of feeling unwell for a day or two previous but no serious results were anticipated by her friends.

—Gen. and Mrs. R. Arnold, U. S. A., A. D. Bread and wife, G. W. Perkins, New York; W. Clarke, Harrisburg; and Lieutenants Berry and Gilmore of the navy are among the prominent arrivals at the Aquidneck House.

—M. Sullivan and Timothy Corcoran who assaulted William Beattie as reported in yesterday's News, gave themselves up to justice last night, they having before succeeded in eluding the search of the police. They were taken before Judge Topham and released upon $500 bail. Timothy Sullivan went bail for Sullivan and Clarke H. Burdick for Corcoran.

—J. A. Williams has photographed the exterior and spire of Trinity Church. It has been impossible heretofore to take a photographic view of the building owing to the difficulty of getting a short focus. Mr. Williams has now a new Ross lens which answers the purpose admirably. The spire of Trinity is one of the most beautiful, architecturally, wooden spires in the country, and it shows to good advantage in the picture.

—Leopold Hertgen lost his boy last night. The town was scoured and the police were notified but to no purpose. About 11 o'clock Officer Thomas B. Carr of the night force suggested that Mrs. Hertgen look through her house which she did and after a while found the little fellow behind a flour barrel asleep. She had seen something behind the barrel repeatedly during the evening but supposed that it was the dog.

—John Waters & Co., examined the bottom of the brig Loch Lomond, bound to Turkey, yesterday, and found a portion of her false keel and a few sheets of copper sheathing knocked off. They commenced today to make the necessary repairs. The owner of the brig went to New York last night to consult with the company that insures her. She will be ready for sea in a few days.

—A horse attached to a light meat wagon, ran from Broadway this morning. Near the state house he ran into a wagon, clearing it completely from its horse and breaking both shafts and an axle. He also collided with a wagon belonging to John Peckham of Middletown breaking two of the wheels. The runaway continued on down Washington square breaking off a stone hitching post by colliding with it and was stopped on Thames street.

—The American Steamboat Company have made ample preparation for the transportation of the thousands to Rocky Point on the 28th inst. The steamers Day Star, Bay Queen, City of Newport, Whitehead, Reliance, and the pride of Narragansett waters, the Crystal Wave, will make regular trips to and from the "City of Clams," from early morning until late at night. On that day there will be only one boat, each way, between Providence and Newport. One boat will leave Newport early in the morning for Providence, and the boat to Newport will leave between 4 and 6 o'clock in the evening.

THE NEW YORK STEAMBOATS.—There is considerable feeling in the community adverse to the proposed action of the Old Colony Steamboat Company in not stopping the boats at this place on the trips from New York. The fruit dealers and market men complain that the train from Fall River will not arrive in season for their business, and the news dealers are in trouble concerning their morning papers. Objections seem to be made to the proposed change on every side. We understand that protests are drawn up and will be circulated for signatures and sent to the officers of the steamboat company in the hope that they may be induced to reverse the decision already announced.

JUSTICE COURT.

TUESDAY, June 19.

Patsey Marks, James Fogarty and Wm. H. Sherman were arraigned this morning for trial upon a complaint for an assault on Henry Dodds who keeps a liquor saloon on Long wharf. From the testimony it would seem that these three lads went into the saloon and Marks called for some ale, although none of them had any money to pay for it. The ale was drunk and subsequently there was a row. Dodds ordered them out of his shop and in the row Dodds was knocked senseless by Marks, there being no testimony to inculpate the other two in the assault, and Fogarty and Sherman were discharged upon motion of their counsel, Mr. Sheffield, and Marks was pronounced guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars amounting with costs to some twenty four dollars.

The complaint against Cleary for cruelly beating his two boys, was again continued upon motion of his counsel, Dr. Turner's testimony only being put in, and the case goes over to Friday.

The complaint against Timothy Corcoran and Marty Sullivan for an outrageous assault upon William Beattie in which the crime of mayhem was committed by one of them biting off one of Beattie's ears, was continued to Friday.

Since the last regular session, at special courts, John Potter and John Cooper have been fined $2 each and costs for revelling—and Henry James sent to the state farm for one year as a vagrant.

STAND BY THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To the Editor of the Daily News:—

I am a tax payer in a small way and therefore interested in keeping down taxes. I have no children to send to school, and have therefore no direct interest in the schools. But my indirect interest in them is so great that I should rather see my annual tax increased than that the schools should suffer.

The present reduction of school appropriations is avowedly aimed at the teachers, and at nobody else. Nobody has charged the school committee with neglect of duty, with carelessness, or with "rings." The fact that they have just returned a large sum unspent into the treasury, shows that they are a body to be trusted. Nobody, so far as I hear, complains of them. The attack is made, directly and avowedly, on the teachers.

Who are these teachers? They are mostly young women, and are well known to those who pay their salaries; for they are our own daughters, sisters, neighbors, friends. We meet them in the churches and in society; we know them to be intelligent, faithful, conscientious, beyond even the generality of their sex. We know also their worldly position. Few of them are the children of rich parents; almost all are dependent on their own labor. Many of them—probably the majority—have others dependent on them also;—an invalid mother, or younger sisters to be clothed and educated, or a brother, out of employ, to be helped. Some of them, in addition to their school-work, have the housework of the family to do; others have to eke out their salaries by extra work outside. Some of them have burdens upon them, very likely, sufficient to break down health and strength, besides their school duties. In all cases, they are engaged in one of the most fatiguing of occupations, and they rarely can save anything as a relief-fund, should their health break down. For one, I say, "If the city must economize, let it save somewhere else; I do not wish to have my tax bills diminished at the expense of the teachers' salaries."

This applies to the majority of teachers. When we come to those of a higher grade, we find teachers who are paid higher prices, simply because we could not secure the same services for less. Any one who will take the pains to inquire may satisfy himself of this. We pay our teacher of drawing $1000, but other cities are paying $1200 and $1500 for work no better. We pay our teacher of French and German in the high school $1200, but she takes the place of two teachers who together cost more. We pay the principal of the high school $3500, but he has twice, to my knowledge, refused larger salaries; and I have just heard of a new school in Massachusetts, very similar in its plan to ours, where the principal is to receive $5000. By the terms of Mr. W. S. Rogers' will, the income of his bequest is to be applied solely "to the support of teachers of the highest qualifications and for no other purpose." Now if we have pledged ourselves to support teachers of the highest qualifications, we must act accordingly.

It may be said that we are paying all our teachers a higher price, relatively, than was paid a dozen or fifteen years ago. I should hope we were. Our whole school system has been made over, since then; and we can no more go back to that time than we can go back to the old hand fire engines. We demand far more of our teachers now than then, and the immense improvement in the condition of our schools is the result. Where we demand more, we must pay more; or we shall find cheap labor to be dear labor in the end. We are not paying more than other cities of this size; we are not paying more than the work is worth. I trust that our school committee will let buildings go unpainted and fences unmended, rather than touch the salaries of the teachers. If this must finally be done, I trust that it will be done under protest; and that an appeal will be made, another year, to the "sober second thought of the people." I am sure that the people of this community will not deliberately sacrifice the interests of the schools.

A TAX-PAYER.

Remonetization of silver for the sake of resumption, as the declared purpose of the administration, will sweep Ohio. Under any other banner, no matter what the phase of evasion, Ohio means to be republican.—[Cincinnati Commercial.

TO OUR PATRONS.

A printed circular, purporting to have been issued by a new firm, Caswell, Massey & Co., dated "Newport, R. I, 1877," perhaps calls for some notice from us.

Upon the 31st day of July, 1876, John R. Caswell ceased to be a member of this firm. The business of the old firm was continued by the undersigned, at the three well known stands of Caswell, Hazard & Co.; in New York, under the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and at the corner of 5th avenue and 39th street; and in Newport, at No. 132 Thames street, corner of Church street, under the old firm name.

As to the Newport business, John R. Caswell, pursuant to agreement for settlement of affairs, sold, for a valuation agreed upon, to R. N. Hazard, and J. C. Hazard, the principal partners in the old firm as well as of the present firm, "all his right, title and interest in the stock in trade and property of every kind of the copartnership in Newport, formerly carried on under the firm name of Caswell, Hazard & Co., excepting only the book accounts outstanding 31st of July, 1876." The bill of sale contains also the following: "and I, the said John R. Caswell, do avouch" "that I will warrant and defend the same to them against the lawful claims of ALL PERSONS WHOSOEVER." And received full payment therefor.

Whether, under the circumstances, such a circular as the one referred to commends those who issued it to the patronage of the former customers of Caswell, Hazard & Co., we leave after this simple statement of facts, to the good judgment of our patrons, assuring them, however, that if they shall continue to us their patronage, at the old store, No. 132 Thames street, corner of Church, where our business will be conducted under the same management, which has for many years given satisfaction to all, we are convinced they will not be disappointed.

N. B. We have not moved and all the old prescription books are here, accessible to those who desire to refer to former prescriptions. No. 132 Thames street, corner of Church. Respectfully yours,

CASWELL, HAZARD & CO.

NEWPORT, June, 1877.

The attention of our readers is called to the auction sale of silver plated ware to take place this evening and continue daily through this week by F. Stanhope at Cozzens' store No. 71 Thames street. The goods were manufactured by the Taunton Silver Plate Company and belong to the Ames estate, and are sold to close up the estate. The factory and machinery will be sold in July.

Dr. Burton, the veterinary surgeon, is having good success with his remedies. He can be found at the stables of G. P. Lawton, on Marlboro street.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE BREVOORT HOUSE A MONARCHY.—It is worth noting that on the 1st of May, Mr. Waite of the Brevoort House ceased to be the active and visible associate of the sleeping and mysterious Co. On that day the old firm expired by limitation, and Mr. Waite henceforth rules with undivided sway the admirable house over which he has in fact presided for so many years. A quarter of a century of business prosperity in New York is as remarkable a thing as a century in London; and yet a great company of guests from all parts of the civilized world will unite in bearing their testimony that there is really nothing remarkable in this long-continued prosperity of so excellent a house, excepting, perhaps, the fact that it has been fairly earned. Mr. Waite is also one of the proprietors of the magnificent Windsor, of our city, which is known to be the most perfect hotel in this country. —[New York World.

DISEASE IS AN ANTAGONIST

that should be attacked the instant he shows himself. Don't wait. At him before his nails are grown, and wipe him out. The great alterative and invigorant of the age, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will speedily infuse such healthful tone into your organism that it will be enabled to successfully resist future attacks. The Bitters prevent and remedy chills and fever and bilious remittents, and eradicate dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine difficulties. It is particularly beneficial when the system has been drained of its vitality or is inherently deficient in strength. The nerves gather from it both vigor and tranquillity. But while it imparts strength and gives a wholesome stimulus to the animal economy, it does not unduly excite it like the cheap exhilarants sometimes resorted to under the erroneous impression that they can invigorate.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health,) by using GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, &c., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, &c., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of AUGUST FLOWER will relieve you at once. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Positively sold by all first-class druggists in the U. S. For sale by James H. Taylor, Newport, R. I.

Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.

These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution. Other remedies advertised as cures for consumption probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which, of course, must make a cure impossible. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium. It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach, and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. There are the only means by which consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genuine cure for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. je16-eod-1m-no

State Cattle Commission.

Regulations Concerning Glanders in Horses.

AT A MEETING of the board of cattle commissioners on Saturday, June 9, 1877, the following regulations were adopted and ordered to be published:—

1. Any horse or other animal that has the disease called glanders or farcy shall be kept by the owner or person having the care of the same, apart and separate from all other horses or animals.

2. No horse or other animal having the disease called glanders or farcy shall be led, or driven, or permitted to go in, or over any public street, road, lane or highway in this state.

The penalty for failure to comply with the above regulations, as fixed by section 5, chapter 76 of the General Statutes, is a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Section 7 provides that any person who shall sell or offer to sell any horse or other domestic animal known to him to be infected with any contagious disease, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

All persons are urgently requested to give immediate information to some member of the Cattle Commission of any case of glanders or farcy that may come to their knowledge, and such cases will be immediately investigated and measures taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

Tramps are very fond of flowers, and may be found peeping into yards and inquiring if the proprietor has anemone for a poor blind cripple.

A butcher sold a sailor a ham on credit, but finding in a few days that he had gone to sea, he growled, "If I'd known that he wasn't going to pay for it, I'd charged him three pence more a pound for it, the rascal!"

When a Chicago man goes out to the Black Hills, and desires to live peaceably, he proclaims himself ex-judge of two Chicago baby shows. Intrepid courage and reckless disregard of danger command respect out there.—[Trade Journal.

A Russian printer charges five dollars to print one hundred visiting cards. This is about five times as much as the American printers charge for a similar job. But then it takes the former ten times as long to set up a Russian name, and although the card if two feet long he is sometimes obliged to run a few syllables of the jawbreaker on the other side.

Theodore Tilton and his daughter Florence are in California. They recently visited the Yosemite, and his letter to a New York friend describing the place is one of the most magnificent pieces of vivid painting that has been perpetrated of late years. Theodore is equal to that. He is three-quarters poet, and has few equals in the use of the English language.

Four per cent seems a small rate of interest, but in the case of the government bonds it is sure to be paid, and this absolute security is better than a fancy railroad stock paying ten per cent dividends, especially when the money to pay the dividends with is borrowed. We anticipate a large subscription to the new government bonds from the class of small investors who prefer a safe thing to a big thing.

ROOFING PAINTS
WE DESIRE TO CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO OUR Fire and Water-Proof Paints
AND
ELASTIC WATER-PROOF CEMENTS, FOR
SHINGLE and TIN ROOFS.
These paints last longer and are more durable than others in use, requiring only one coat. These paints are especially adapted for old roofs. A coating of cement and paints renders them serviceable for eight years longer, and adds very materially to the looks of buildings. They are cheap, durable and ornamental. We employ none but experienced workmen and in every case we warrant satisfaction.
We also Apply our
Patent Mineral and Ironsand Roofing,
FOR FLAT AND STEEP ROOFS.
These roofings take the place of slate or gravel, and do not weigh only one to one and a half pounds to the square foot.
We warrant these articles and can furnish satisfactory references to any person requiring them.

Miscellaneous.

CHILDREN TEETHING
MRS. WINSLOW'S
SOOTHING SYRUP,
For Children Teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is Sure to Regulate the Bowels.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to Your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience. AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in Thousands of Cases.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic.
We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.
Be sure and call for
"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"
Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper.
Sold by druggists throughout the world.

"A FASCINATING WORK ON AN ENTHRALLING TOPIC."
HE WILL COME:
By STEPHEN R. TING, JR., D. D.
This work is not prophetical. It discusses the topic as a living promise. Its plan is to follow the narrative of a Christian's experience of the revealed facts in the next dispensation. There is not a line of controversy in the volume. Yet it is full of bold and original thought, apt illustration, and forcible writing, and it is a work which no one who is "watching and waiting" for the Lord can afford to miss. 16mo, 216pp., $1.25 in cloth; $2.50 in Morocco.
